CHAPTER X THE RABBI OF CONGREGATION BENE YESHURUN On April 26, 1854, Isaac Mayer Wise arrived in Cincinnati, and during the next forty-six years his entire life was devoted to the cause of Judaism in America. This successful career covering the last half of the nineteenth century can be appreciated best if his many-sided activities are considered separately. Naturally they overlap and are so interwoven one with the other that it will be difficult to portray any one without reference to the others. However, a clear insight into his power, force, and influence can be had by setting forth in greater detail each phase of his activity, that of rabbi of the congregation Bene Yeshurun, editor of the American Israelite, founder of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the Hebrew Union College, and the Central Conference of American Rabbis. In 1854, Cincinnati had a...
