Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Discontented Robins: And Other Stories for the Young Do, dear mother, tell us a story, said the eldest of a group of rosy, laughing children, as they seated themselves around a bright fire, one cold evening last winter. I will with pleasure, replied their indulgent mother; but first I wish to know why my little George, who is usually so merry, now looks so discontented. What is the matter, my son? I was only thinking, mother, that I wish father was as rich as Mr. Allen, and we could have every thing as handsome as he does. Father sent me there with a letter this afternoon, and Mr. Allen asked me to walk in while he wrote an answer.
