The suspension of specie payments not only involved the Government, but the people, in difficulties and embarrassments; yet the administration, instead of using its legitimate powers and immense resources to relieve the people as well as the Government, has cut itself loose from the people, seized by its strong arm the gold and silver for itself and its office-holders, leaving the people to fare as best they may. But the advocates of the measure say, the people are not compelled to take any thing but gold and silver. They are compelled to do it, by that which is stronger than law - by stern necessity. Let the mechanics, or merchants, or farmers determine to take nothing but gold or silver, and the mechanic may shut up his shop, the merchant his store, and...
