Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Third Parallel to Marriage is a life experience novel that demonstrates perseverance of love to overcome the various encounters that lead to a search for a meaningful relationship with a chosen bride. The circumstance that prevailed in urban society created an superficial standard of character which caused a deficit in education and spiritual transformation. As the man attempts to address both deficits in his life, he is confronted with the conventional discourse of persuasion. While his career is being altered by the foreign and domestic policy, he is removed from the educational system and reactivated into military service. In his absence from the normal routine of work in education he is enlighten with revelations toward new cultural standards equality, freedom and spiritual edification with a woman. That woman is the answer to the future existence of man, but her state of mind had to be parallel to spiritual consciousness to achieve unification with the forces of creation. Social awareness had to be infused with the dynamic concept of evolution from the standard of mass deformation. The issues of the war in Iraq, and the constant state of conflict penetrates the conscious state of mind and the economy into the state of repression. The general population loses sight to reason, and recognizes social regression as the cause for the elusive social policy towards equality. In hope of avoiding extinction from the human evolution chain, he must prepare the necessary measures to counter act the forces of destruction. The people are preoccupied with survival on the material scale, and slip into captivity and spiritual destitution. He places hope in reviving the true state of relation with a woman that...
