Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Rhyme and Story Primer The object of The Rhyme and Story Primer is to make the child s first experience with school books pleasant as well as profitable. Furthermore, the use of rhymes and poems for the first reading lessons - always blackboard lessons - being most highly approved and having now become very general, it has been deemed expedient to make of these first lessons a direct stepping-stone to that dear object of the child s ambition - a book. On pages 2, 4, 7, 10, 15, 19, 23, 26, 28, 31, 38, 43 will be found twelve carefully graded rhymes, which are intended for these first lessons, comprising from ten to twelve weeks of reading from the blackboard. These twelve rhymes provide a vocabulary of one hundred and fifty-seven words which, with eighteen additional words, arc all that arc required for the reading of this part. It will be noticed that after the first rhyme none are introduced of which all the words are new; such a choice of material having been made, the little reader will frequently have the pleasant and encouraging experience of meeting a word already learned.
