I am an old man now, but I remember, I saw him in the flesh. My, my, what flesh! I can still see him shut his eyes to sing, - As he did always when he d drunk too much! He was the splndidest fool I ever knew. His great red nose was bent down like an ogre s, His mouth was wide, he was half-bald, half-grey, His legs were bandy. Every woman in town Had slapped his face, - although, to hear him talk, You d think he d kissed them all! He was a coward, We kicked him, spat upon him, whipped him, cursed him, And threw him out of doors. And yet, we liked him. What lies he told! He had a genius for it. He killed his wife, hopped upon Sheba s knee, Walked and talked with devils, raped and murdered. Why did we listen to...
